of the senate.

The measure, when the Weeks Bill, for the establishment of a naval auxiliary merchant marine was passed in the house on Tuesday of last week during the height of the senate fillbuster, was passed as a rider and has been in conference committee. This committee will report today. The ed the Fortification Bill, carrying oftal of $6,000,0.0, and the Diploma Service Appropriation Bill, with the will of the president and congress.

This report will be opposed and will come no nearer a vote than the ariginal measure if the plans of the Republicans succeed.

Carrying a total considerably higher than voted in the house, and ex-
